Dear Friends,

Happy Holy Thursday, the day we remember the institution of the Eucharist, the priest, and the start of the Passion. In these Holy Days let us never fail to recall the love God has for us.

As mentioned in yesterday's video message, St. Dom's will be keeping instruction remote for the remainder of the school year. Navigation through these unknown waters undoubtedly will have challenging moments. Teamwork will help us all survive.

Fr. Seamus will be broadcasting the Stations of the Cross on his YouTube channel tomorrow at 11 am. This link will provide access to his channel. <https://youtu.be/sPa6ijry7yg>

Please be sure and mark the time so you can join us in celebrating the Passion of our Lord through the stations.

On Monday we will start our Spirit Week. In the midst of continued learning, we will have some fun. All ages are invited to partake. Please find a way to share what you are doing with your teachers. Also, please watch for the survey that will be coming out. It will ask questions designed to help us better understand how we are doing, what we need to improve, and where we need to pay special attention.

As always, we stand by ready to help, ready to listen, and ready to act. If you have been affected financially by this crisis, please don't let that stop you from reaching out to us so we can find aid.

If you happen to be in a position to help, please consider the Jean-Dion Challenge which is currently running where each dollar you give is tripled by alumni Ray '60 and Louise '61 Jean and Don Dion '72.

Please click on the link to participate. Give Here Today

God Bless you all and may you have a blessed Holy Week and a Happy Easter,

Timothy Gallic
